Classes 15 to 50 includes English Yellow Faced Blue and Australian Goldenfaced Blue.

ENTRY FORM

All fees must accompany the entry form with a stamped self addressed business size envelope. All cheques/money orders made payable to the B.S.S.A.

Entries can be paid in cash on the day.

Exhibits to be benched from 8-30 am with Judging to commence at 9-30am.

Trophy presentation prior to the auction.

SHOW CAGES

Cages must have a D drinker half full of seed, placed on the bottom wire, on the front of the Show Cage as close as practicable to the door.

Exhibitors may use the "old style" ANBC approved Show Cage.

New cages are to be fitted with a drinker four spaces from the left (dry for judging) and old cages position the drinker 5 spaces from the left, level with the perch.

The seed available is to be equal parts canary, jap millet and white millet.

Entry stickers are to be placed on the bottom left hand corner of the Show Cage.

Four birds shall constitute a class and the Show Committee shall reserve the right to combine classes.

All Show Cages must be clean and maintained to an appropriate condition.

Extra show cages will be made available on the day if required by contacting a BSSA committee member.

Lunch is provided.

The Safety officer will be checking all cages, and has the right to disqualify entries prior to judging for signs of illness, deformity or poorly prepared show cages that may be deemed hazardous or unhealthy to other exhibits.

All entries are exhibited at the owners risk, but the Show Committee will exercise all due care.

Hot Weather Policy:- If the predicted temperature is 32c or higher at 6pm the evening before the Show the Show will be cancelled. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to check the forecast temperature on the News on the evening before the Show
